Students complete assignments outside of class throughout the week in preparation for the live class meetings. Teachers do all the marking and grading. We require 4 students registered to open a class.

Coached: The student joins a class on canvas, watches videos and uploads work to hand in to a co-op teacher who gives deadlines and does the marking. There are no live interactive classes but the coach is available to answer questions.

You Teach: you as a parent are responsible to teach and mark this course and supply the registrar with grades in June and December. For physical education just make sure that they have put in the required number of hours for a credit.

Self-Paced: These online courses have automated grading. Parents are responsible to monitor student progress and report grades to registrar when course is completed.
